

LIBRARY/CAREER CENTER COLLABORATIONS...

setting students up for success

Jennifer Wilhelm, Assistant Professor

Why the Libraries?

- Libraries provide unbiased information to all who seek it. and we encourage literacy in any form, including career and financial.
- Students at all stages of their college journey have information needs.
- Librarians are well placed to partner across academic and non academic departments
- We offer a variety of instructional delivery methods .
- We have resources useful to students considering a career or company

Support Throughout the Entire College Journey

New to This

Continuing Their Path

Job Seeker

Graduate

New to This

Sarah LeMire, First Year Experience Librarian
Learning and Outreach Department

- Where can they find 'good' information on careers and majors?
- Introduce the Occupational Outlook Handbook - what education/experience is required, what is projected growth, where are jobs located?
- How to search for information using their parameters and vocabulary

Job Seekers

Jennifer Wilhelm, Business Librarian
West Campus Library

- Where to find company and industry information
- How to prepare to speak intelligently on the company or career
- What databases are available for use while they are students - why take advantage of them?

How do we do this?

What methods do librarians use?

Presentations

One-Shots

Tabling Events

Internet Resources & LibGuides

Collection Development

COLLABORATIONS! :)

How Does Collaboration Fit In?

How can the Libraries and Career Center benefit?

- More communication across campus
- Extra resources (human and other)
- Shared knowledge
- Increased visibility for both

What questions do you have?

Jennifer Wilhelm, Assistant Professor

West Campus Library

979-845-4091

jwilhelm@library.tamu.edu